

What kind of suit is being worn by the Sui Jianguo, Discobolus sculpture on page 528?

Write a few quick notes about the sculpture "Goddess_of_Democracy" as found on Wikipedia

What the 7 "Themes of Art" our Author (and his team) has listed in Part 5 in the World of Art text.

1	5
2	6
3	7
4

At www.ballstudio.net - read then chose a few phrases that describe what a "theme" is

How might art and science be considered at opposite ends of human endeavor? page 638

Our author claims J. M. W. Turner's Rain, Steam, and Speed—The Great Western Railway shows a change in way it was possible for people to see. How?

List a few amazing technological features The Pont du Gard (Architecture) built by the Romans. (Fig. 27-3)

How does (Fig. 27-6) change / challenge the statement "Abstraction in art began with Picasso and Cubism in Paris in 1907."

The Lunar Society in England gathered from 1765 until 1815, the group discussed _____ that might prove fruitful for industry. It is fair to say that the group, _____.

What methods did Josiah Wedgwood use in making his dinnerware sets (Craft) Fig 27.7 that enabled mass production?

Fig. 27-8 Albert Bierstadt, The Rocky Mountains, Lander's Peak :

Year painted _____ Size _____ Current location _____

What is the large US region (which we are in) common to both Fig 27-8 and 27-9

Name a few ways "depth" is created in Fig. 27-9 Noon-Day Rest in Marble Canyon

What are common theme(s) found in Fig 27.10, 27.11, 27.12, 27.14, 27.15 ?

Which US state is Fig. 27-18 by Maya Lin a map of? _____ Or... _____

At www.ballstudio.net = Take a Few Notes from Maya Lin - Disappearing Bodies of Water - Video

Choose another work(s) by Maya Lin you find interesting that might relate to this chapter.

Choose and list a few works by David Brooks that you do or do not - like / find interesting.

How his work is about "science."